

HAL MADDEN OUTSTANDING SERVICE AWARD RECIPIENTS

Hal Madden, the initial recipient of this award, is a founding member of the Michigan Association of CMH Boards and a champion of services to adults and children with mental illness, serious emotional disturbance or developmental disabilities. He was a charter board member of the Mason County CMH in 1964 and has made numerous statewide contributions to improving quality of life to persons served by CMH.

The “Hal Madden Outstanding Service” Award is to honor individuals from within the public mental health systems (CMH & DCH) who have made, over time, an outstanding contribution to the public mental health system.
